Sweet family from Claiborne Co., TN

Posted: 21 Mar 2005 9:35AM GMT

Classification: Query

Surnames: Sweet Medlock Malicote

I've come across some information that I've been trying to puzzle out. It seems that Mary Elizabeth Medlock who had married Calvin Malicoate may have been of Cherokee descent. Her half sister Louisa had filed a Guion Miller application and Louisa had stated their grandmother Malissa Sweet had been kidnapped by Indians in the early 1800 (1800-1805)'s. (Which could explain why she never married)

Mary and Louisa's mother-Matilda Sweet was a half-breed according to Louisa Medlock Hunters application (she was rejected by the way because, I think, she couldn't fill in all the blanks on the form).

Louisa's mother was named Matilda and she was found in the household of Philip Malicoate in 1850 Campbell Co. As near as we can tell, Matilda and Philip were not married (Phillip's wife, Nancy Combs Malicoate, was in Grainger Co. and still very much alive for quite a while) and the children listed as Malicoates in that census were apparently fathered by different men—except perhaps Prior Malicoate (yes, I'm deliberately spelling the Malicoate name different ways as the family did that for just about forever which makes research "interesting" to say the least). Louisa herself said that her father was a William Heatherly and that her mother and her father had never been married!

I then came across a Campbell Co. Circuit Court record from September 1850 in which Philip and Matilda were charged with Lewdness. The trial did not occur until 1855—Aaron Malicoate, John Comer, and John F. Longmire put up 250 dollars in bond to insure Phillip would come to trial and Philip did eventually be sentenced for lewdness and faced two months jail time (it had been four months but the four had been crossed out and the word two written above it) plus court costs plus a fine which, according to the record, he could avoid if he took the insolvency oath. I could not find a trial record for Matilda.

By 1860 her children were 'scattered' in different households in Campbell Co.—Louisa was listed as a pauper in Larkin Malicote's household. Mary Medlock had married her Calvin Malicoate by then so apparently either Matilda had died or had run off. Matilda Medlock had disappeared from the 1860 census (She is found in Claybourn Co TN in Malissa's household) but Louisa claimed in her application that she had been told her mother died in 1865 ?????? Did she not know where she was???? She was last seen in the 1880 Claybourn Co TN census?

Then in 1870 Claiborne Co. Census I found a Prior Malicote age 8 in the household of Malissa and Matilda Sweet in Claiborne Co. This Prior was the only son of Prior Malicote and a Caroline (both having died during the Civil War around 1864-1865) according to Jean Brand's research on the Malicote families.

Since Matilda Sweet's age was the same as Matilda Medlock and since she had Prior Malicoate in her household the speculation is this is one and the same woman. Also what adds "fuel" to this speculation is there is a court record in Claiborne for a Philip Malicoate and three of his children married in Claiborne County which ties Philip with Claiborne County as well as Grainger Co.

As near as I can figure, the Malissa Sweet who was head of the household was Matilda's mother.

(Malissa had been a midwife in Claiborne county according to one court record and who NEVER married it seems, and who had children anyway. But I suppose since she supported herself they didn't care what she did)—she also may have been a sister to David Sweet who had settled in Anderson County. This last bit is speculation based on Malissa, David, and Owen Sweet appearing in the Claiborne Co. census in 1830 together.

Owen Sweet left this country and settled in Pulaski County Ky in case anyone is interested. David Sweet, who had married a woman named Highley, stayed in Anderson County and had a bunch of children. Malissa Sweet stayed in Claiborne County.

Malissa Sweet had a son named David Barton Sweet. He had married a Margaret A. Moore and they had several children before David Barton died. Margaret appears by herself with children in 1870 Claiborne Census. In 1880 she is still a widow with her children in her hh however there are several others also listed as her children who were not in the 1870 census. I'm wondering if they were married to her children and were in-laws instead. At any rate there is a Sarah Sweet who had made application to the Guion Miller rolls claiming she had married an Indian by the name of John Sweet FROM CLAIBORNE COUNTY and she had two sons, James David and George, who also filed...however this Sarah was filing because of her own lineage not her husbands. She was rejected as well. I did find TVA records for this Sweet family. Most of them had been removed to Big Barrens Memorial Cemetery in the 1930's....

The time frame for these people was 1830 THROUGH 1880. After 1880 there is very little except that the sons of David Barton Sweet & Margaret remained in Claiborne—John Sweet in 1900 claimed he was a widower but none of his children were listed. That 20 year span is a real brickwall for me.

CHAPTER 6

JOB PING & HIS DESCENDANTS¹

Job PING (3) was born in Kentucky on 25 Aug 1800. He was probably born on the Buck Creek farm of his father, John PING (2). This property lies about fifteen miles from Somerset. He died 1 Feb 1883, Brown Co. IN.

Job married 3 Feb 1825 (some give 4 Feb 1821) Pulaski Co. KY by Rev. Joseph M. JAMES to Christina MEECE. Henry MEECE and John PING gave their consent. She was born 29 Jun 1798 KY, and died 29 Nov 1895. (The name Meece has been variously spelled Micee and Meese.) Job & Christina migrated to Indiana with Job's father and brothers around 1833. They first lived in Bartholomew Co. in a section which probably was the same which went to make up Brown Co. when it was formed in 1836.

The known children of Job & Christina and their descendants follow.

I. Betty Jane PING (4), b ca 1825 KY. She died early in life and is supposed to have been the second burial at the New Bellsville Cem in Brown Co.

1. An early manuscript of Job PING and his family may be found in the Indiana State Library. A Family Tree of Job & Christina Micee PING was compiled in 1977 by Walker PING, Lenore Stuckey McNEALY, Alvin PING, and Opal PORTER. This revision was made in 1977 by Dalton PING; revised and corrected by Donald H. PING in 1985.

Sweet Family - Virginia - Claiborne Co., TN

(researching this family - not complete - will remove this message when done)

WASHINGTON CO., VIRGINIA

Alexander, Henry and Moses Sweet were listed in 1797 on the Personal A Tax List for Washington Co., Virginia.

Alexander Sweet's children Owen Sweet (1791) and Melissa Sweet (1799) were both born in Virginia. Son, David Sweet, was born about 1800 in Tennessee. It appears that the Alexander Sweet family moved to Tennessee between 1799 and 1800.

CLAIBORNE CO., TENNESSEE

Owen Sweet was married about 1818. His first son, Alexander Sweet, was born about 1819. In the 1830 census, Owen and his wife had three other children, a boy and a girl, born 1820-1825, and a girl born 1825-1830. They had another son, James David Sweet, about 1833. Owen's first wife died sometime between 1833 and 1836. Owen married Mary Jane Sparks in 1836.

Owen's sister, Melissa Sweet, never married. She did raise several children; a girl born 1815-1820; a girl named Matilda Sweet born 1821; a boy named David Barton Sweet born 1823; a girl born 1825-1830; a girl named Nancy J. Sweet born 1835. There is some speculation that these were actually her children, however, they may have been orphaned children from her siblings or children she "adopted". Melissa Sweet had these older children listed with her in the 1830 Claiborne Co., Tennessee census. These were not her brother, Owen's, children as he and his first wife and children were also in this 1830 census as was their brother, David Sweet and his family.

Medlock, Malicote

Ancestry.com

Sweet family from Claiborne Co., TN

Posted: 21 Mar 2005 9:35AM GMT

Classification: Query

Surnames: Sweet Medlock Malicote

I've come across some information that I've been trying to puzzle out. It seems that Mary Elizabeth Medlock who had married Calvin Malicoat may have been of Cherokee descent. Her half sister Louisa had filed a Guion Miller application and Louisa had stated their grandmother Malissa Sweet had been kidnapped by Indians in the early 1800 (1800-1805)'s. (Which could explain why she never married)

Mary and Louisa's mother-Matilda Sweet was a half-breed according to Louisa Medlock Hunters application (she was rejected by the way because, I think, she couldn't fill in all the blanks on the form).

Louisa's mother was named Matilda and she was found in the household of Philip Malicoate in 1850 Campbell Co. As near as we can tell, Matilda and Philip were not married (Phillip's wife, Nancy Combs Malicoate, was in Grainger Co. and still very much alive for quite a while) and the children listed as Malicoates in that census were apparently fathered by different men--except perhaps Prior Malicoate (yes, I'm deliberately spelling the Malicoate name different ways as the family did that for just about forever which makes research "interesting" to say the least). Louisa herself said that her father was a William Heatherly and that her mother and her father had never been married!

I then came across a Campbell Co. Circuit Court record from September 1850 in which Philip and Matilda were charged with Lewdness. The trial did not occur until 1855--Aaron Malicoate, John Comer, and John F. Longmire put up 250 dollars in bond to insure Phillip would come to trial and Philip did eventually be sentenced for lewdness and faced two months jail time (it had been four months but the four had been crossed out and the word two written above it) plus court costs plus a fine which, according to the record, he could avoid if he took the insolvency oath. I could not find a trial record for Matilda.

By 1860 her children were 'scattered' in different households in Campbell Co--Louisa was listed as a pauper in Larkin Malicote's household. Mary Medlock had married her Calvin Malicoate by then so apparently either Matilda had died or had run off. Matilda Medlock had disappeared from the 1860 census (She is found in Claybourn Co TN in Malissa's household) but Louisa claimed in her application that she had been told her mother died in 1865 ?????? Did she not know where she was???? She was last seen in the 1880 Claybourn Co TN census?

Then in 1870 Claiborne Co. Census I found a Prior Malicote age 8 in the household of Malissa and Matilda Sweet in Claiborne Co. This Prior was the only son of Prior Malicote and a Caroline (both having died during the Civil War around 1864-1865) according to Jean Brand's research on the Malicote families.

Since Matilda Sweet's age was the same as Matilda Medlock and since she had Prior Malicoate in her household the speculation is this is one and the same woman. Also what adds "fuel" to this speculation is there is a court record in Claiborne for a Philip Malicoate and three of his children married in Claiborne County which ties Philip with Claiborne County as well as Grainger Co.

As near as I can figure, the Malissa Sweet who was head of the household was Matilda's mother.

(Malissa had been a midwife in Claiborne county according to one court record and who NEVER married it seems, and who had children anyway. But I suppose since she supported herself they didn't care what she did)--she also may have been a sister to David Sweet who had settled in Anderson County. This last bit is speculation based on Malissa, David, and Owen Sweet appearing in the Claiborne Co. census in 1830 together.

Owen Sweet left this country and settled in Pulaski County Ky in case anyone is interested. David Sweet, who had married a woman named Highley, stayed in Anderson County and had a bunch of children. Malissa Sweet stayed in Claiborne County.

Malissa Sweet had a son named David Barton Sweet. He had married a Margaret A. Moore and they had several children before David Barton died. Margaret appears by herself with children in 1870 Claiborne Census. In 1880 she is still a widow with her children in her hh however there are several others also listed as her children who were not in the 1870 census. I'm wondering if they were married to her children and were in-laws instead. At any rate there is a Sarah Sweet who had made application to the Guion Miller rolls claiming she had married an Indian by the name of John Sweet FROM CLAIBORNE COUNTY and she had two sons, James David and George, who also filed...however this Sarah was filing because of her own lineage not her husbands. She was rejected as well. I did find TVA records for this Sweet family. Most of them had been removed to Big Barrens Memorial Cemetery in the 1930's....

The time frame for these people was 1830 THROUGH 1880. After 1880 there is very little except that the sons of David Barton Sweet & Margaret remained in Claiborne – John Sweet in 1900 claimed he was a widower but none of his children were listed. That 20 year gap is a real brickwall for me.

Sweet family from Claiborne Co., TN

Posted: 21 Mar 2005 9:35AM GMT

Classification: Query

Surnames: Sweet Medlock Malicote

I've come across some information that I've been trying to puzzle out. It seems that Mary Elizabeth Medlock who had married Calvin Malicoat may have been of Cherokee descent. Her half sister Louisa had filed a Guion Miller application and Louisa had stated their grandmother Malissa Sweet had been kidnapped by Indians in the early 1800 (1800-1805)'s. (Which could explain why she never married) - b.1836/9

Mary and Louisa's mother Matilda Sweet was a half-breed according to Louisa Medlock Hunters application (she was rejected by the way because, I think, she couldn't fill in all the blanks on the form).

Louisa's mother was named Matilda and she was found in the household of Philip Malicoate in 1850 Campbell Co. As near as we can tell, Matilda and Philip were not married (Phillip's wife, Nancy Combs Malicoate, was in Grainger Co. and still very much alive for quite a while) and the children listed as Malicoates in that census were apparently fathered by different men—except perhaps Prior Malicoate (yes, I'm deliberately spelling the Malicoate name different ways as the family did that for just about forever which makes research "interesting" to say the least). Louisa herself said that her father was a William Heatherly and that her mother and her father had never been married!

I then came across a Campbell Co. Circuit Court record from September 1850 in which Philip and Matilda were charged with Lewdness. The trial did not occur until 1855—Aaron Malicoate, John Comer, and John F. Longmire put up 250 dollars in bond to insure Phillip would come to trial and Phillip did eventually be sentenced for lewdness and faced two months jail time (it had been four months but the four had been crossed out and the word two written above it) plus court costs plus a fine which, according to the record, he could avoid if he took the insolvency oath. I could not find a trial record for Matilda.

By 1860 her children were 'scattered' in different households in Campbell Co—Louisa was listed as a pauper in Larkin Malicote's household. Mary Medlock had married her Calvin Malicoate by then so apparently either Matilda had died or had run off. Matilda Medlock had disappeared from the 1860 census (She is found in Claybourn Co TN in Malissa's household) but Louisa claimed in her application that she had been told her mother died in 1865 ?????? Did she not know where she was???? She was last seen in the 1880 Claybourn Co TN census?

Then in 1870 Claiborne Co. Census I found a Prior Malicoate age 8 in the household of

FIFTH GENERATION

16. Daniel CROUCH was born in 1832 in Bartholomew Co, IN.^{1,7,8,9} Norma Crouch records listed 1828. 1832 is Glen Crouch records. 1850 Census, 1860 Census and military records indicate 1832 is correct. He appeared on the census in 1850 in Brown County, IN.¹⁰ in Van Buren Township, age 18 listed with parents' family. He appeared on the census in 1860 in Jackson Co., IN.¹⁰ Age 28, in Brownstone Township, listed with wife Nancy and 4 children., p 567. He was On committee to expend relief funds for families of men who were in service. in 1861 in Brown County, IN.¹⁰ in Washington Township. He served in the military in 1864/65 in Indiana.^{10,9} Glenn Crouch records show Daniel Crouch served in the Civil War as a substitute for Hamilton Clipp, serving in Co G, 32nd Reg, IN Inf. Daniel Crouch enlisted 19 Oct 1864, Columbus IN; mustered out 08 May 1865. At time of induction Daniel Crouch was age 33, had blue eyes, dark hair, fair complexion, & was 6' 2" tall.

Military records obtained from National Archives (certificate 302819) dated 15 Jan 1885 show Daniel Crouch as a private in Co. C (not G), Garrison Guards and 32nd regiment, Indiana Volunteer Infantry. Enlisted 19 Oct 1864, discharged at Indianapolis, 8 May 1865, disabled by lung disease on 2 Dec 1864, treated at Hospital Camp Carrington, Indianapolis, 20 Dec 1864. Records dated earlier (24 Dec 1883) show he was enrolled as a substitute for Hamilton Clipp at Columbus, IN, but that when he was mustered out he showed no evidence of disability. These records note medical records of Garrison Guards not on file.

An affidavit signed 19 March 1870, by Daniel's family doctor George P. Story in Brown County, states that "prior to and at the time of his enlistment he was a sound, healthy able-bodied man", and that "since his return home from the army he has suffered with disease of the lungs which still continues and affiant believes the same was contracted in the army."

The Declaration for Invalid Army Pension, filed in Brown County 12 July 1869, states Daniel Crouch, age 37 (b. 1832), a resident of Vanburen township, claims to be same who enlisted in Columbus, in Bartholomew County, with above dates, and that "from hardships and exposure incident to camp life he contracted a deep cold which settled upon his lungs, which (?) and brought on disease of the same from which he has never recovered but by reason of the same he is greatly disqualified for performing manual labor. . . Since leaving the service he has resided in Van Buren township . . . and his occupation has been farming when able. . . When enrolled he was a farmer. . . He requests that his pension be paid at Indianapolis. . . His Post Office address is Marble, County of Brown, IN."

An affidavit filed by the Brown County clerk 4 Nov 1893, quotes 63 year old Wilson Harden of Story, and George W. Crider of Elkinsville as swearing they were comrades of Daniel Crouch in Company C, Garrison Guards Indiana volunteers, and were in camp with him in February or end of January 1865, and knew he complained of diarrhea and had diarrhea at Camp Carrington at or about that time. And they have continued to see him periodically since then, and he has on occasion complained the diarrhea continues, and they believe he is incapacitated wholly for the performance of manual labor. A statement filed in Bartholomew County pension office Jan 1885, has Daniel Crouch, age 53 of Pikes Peak in Brown County, declaring "he cannot furnish the testimony of the regimental surgeon, for the reason he was on detached service at Camp Carrington and never saw the regimental surgeon and never joined his command but remained on detached duty until mustered out."

A more interesting statement filed in Bartholomew County has Daniel Crouch of Pikes Peak says that "he desires to have an order for his examination issued before any board than Bloomington, IN, as he does not believe he can obtain justice before that board for personal reasons and he also can be better accommodated at or before some other board."

Another statement quotes Wilson Harden, then 57, of Nashville in Brown County, saying he was in Company C and "was intimately acquainted with Daniel Crouch. While on garrison duty about the first of December 1864 at Indianapolis, Ind., Daniel Crouch contracted rheumatism. He was frequently excused from duty on account of rheumatism and also heart disease of which he also complained several days when he was furloughed home and returned to the camp in Jan, 1865, still suffering with rheumatism and heart disease but having had the advantages of home treatment and skilful nursing he was much better than when furloughed home. He continued to suffer with these disabilities until in May 1865, when we were mustered out of the service." George W. Crider filed a very similar statement.

A statement quotes Daniel Crouch saying "that he was never treated in a hospital but that he was furloughed home from Camp Carrington by the physician in charge of the hospital at Camp Carrington . . . on or about Dec. 20, 1864. That he was

I've come across some information that I've been trying to puzzle out. It seems that Mary Elizabeth Medlock who had married Calvin Malicoate may have been of Cherokee descent. Her half sister Louisa had filed a Guion Miller application and Louisa had stated their grandmother had been kidnapped by Indians in the early 1800 (1800-1805)'s.

Mary and Louisa's mother was a half-breed according to Louisa Medlock Hunters application (she was rejected by the way because, I think, she couldn't fill in all the blanks on the form).

Louisa's mother was named Matilda and she was found in the HH of Philip Malicoate in 1850 Campbell Co. As near as we can tell, Matilda and Philip were not married (Phillip's wife, Nancy Combs Malicoate, was in Grainger Co. and still very much alive for quite a while) and the children listed as Malicoates in that census were apparently fathered by different men--except perhaps Prior Malicoate (yes, I'm deliberately spelling the Malicoate name different ways as the family did that for just about forever which makes research "interesting" to say the least). Louisa herself said that her father was a William Heatherly and that her mother and her father had never been married!

I then came across a Campbell Co. Circuit Court record from September 1850 in which Philip and Matilda were charged with Lewdness. The trial did not occur until 1855--Aaron Malicoate, John Comer, and John F. Longmire put up 250 dollars in bond to insure Phillip would come to trial and Philip did eventually be sentenced for lewdness and faced two months jail time (it had been four months but the four had been crossed out and the word two written above it) plus court costs plus a fine which, according to the record, he could avoid if he took the insolvency oath. I could not find a trial record for Matilda. By 1860 her children were 'scattered' in different households in Campbell Co--Louisa was listed as a pauper in Larkin Malicote's household. Mary Medlock had married her Calvin Malicoate by then so apparently either Matilda had died or had run off. Matilda Medlock had disappeared from the 1860 census but Louisa claimed in her application that she had been told her mother died in 1865.

Then in 1870 Claiborne Co. Census I found a Prior Malicote age 8 in the household of Malissa and Matilda Sweet in Claiborne Co. This Prior was the only son of Prior Malicote and a Caroline (both having died during the Civil War around 1864-1865) according to Jean Brand's research on the Malicote families. Since Matilda Sweet's age was the same as Matilda Medlock and since she had Prior Malicoate in her household the speculation is this is one and the same woman. Also what adds "fuel" to this speculation is there is a court record in Claiborne for a Philip Malicoate and three of his children married in Claiborne County which ties Philip with Claiborne County as well as Grainger Co. http://content.ancestry.com/iexec/?htx=View&r=an&dbid=8057&iid=INM704_87-0157&f... 7/18/2006 As near as I can figure, the Malissa Sweet who was head of the household was Matilda's mother (Malissa had been a midwife in Claiborne county according to one court record and who NEVER married it seems and who had had children anyway but I suppose since she supported herself they didn't care what she did)--she also may have been a sister to David

Sweet who had settled in Anderson County. This last bit is speculation based on Malissa, David, and Owen Sweet appearing in the Claiborne Co. census in 1830 together. Owen Sweet left this country and settled in Pulaski County Ky in case anyone is interested. David Sweet, who had married a woman named Highley, stayed in Anderson and had a bunch of children. Malissa Sweet stayed in Claiborne County.

Malissa Sweet had a son named David Barton Sweet. He had married a Margaret A. Moore and they had had several children before David Barton died. Margaret appears by herself with children in 1870 Claiborne Census. In 1880 she is still a widow with her children in her hh however there are several others also listed as her children who were not in the 1870 census. I'm wondering if they were married to her children and were in-laws instead. At any rate there is a Sarah Sweet who had made application to the Guion Miller rolls claiming she had married an Indian by the name of John Sweet FROM CLAIBORNE COUNTY and she had two sons, James David and George, who also filed...however this Sarah was filing because of her own lineage not her husbands. She was rejected as well. I did find TVA records for this Sweet family. Most of them had been removed to Big Barrens Memorial Cemetery in the 1930's....

The time frame for these people was 1830 THROUGH 1880. After 1880 there is very little except that the sons of Margaret remained in Claiborne -- John Sweet in 1900 claimed he was a widower but none of his children were listed. That 20 year gap is a real brickwall for me.

If any of this makes sense to anyone, please let me know how I can connect the dots here. It seems as though there is very little information on this family...

Any help will be deeply appreciated!

of her own lineage not her husbands. She was rejected as well. I did find TVA records for this Sweet family. Most of them had been removed to Big Barrens Memorial Cemetery in the 1930's....

The time frame for these people was 1830 THROUGH 1880. After 1880 there is very little except that the sons of Margaret remained in Claiborne -- John Sweet in 1900 claimed he was a widower but none of his children were listed. That 20 year gap is a real brickwall for me.

If any of this makes sense to anyone, please let me know how I can connect the dots here. It seems as though there is very little information on this family...

Any help will be deeply appreciated!

I would appreciate any information you may have on D. Barton Sweet. I believe this Sweet family to be related to William Sweet and Elizabeth Mershon who settled early on in Fleming County, Kentucky. There was an early Barton in this family. If I can ever prove any of this information, I'll be more than happy to share it with you.

Subject: Re: Re; Sweet family

Ernie,

Bless your heart for answering! I have been trying to piece together this Sweet family for awhile and will share with you my findings. I do believe the William B. Sweet who is living with Malissa Sweet in the 1850/60/70 Claiborne County, TN census records is my great grandfather.

My William was born 9 Mar 1848 and died 25 Feb 1872 in Champaign County, Illinois. He appears in the 1870 Piatt County, Illinois, census with James and Mary (Johnson) Cooper. He also appears in the 1870 Claiborne County, TN census with Matilda Sweet. He would have had time to travel from Tennessee to Illinois and be counted in both census records. The Claiborne census was taken in June and the Piatt County census was taken in July - about a month between census.

In 1870 William is living with James Cooper and Mary (Johnson) who were married 1/7/1852 in Pulaski County, Kentucky. Mary was the adopted d/o Martieen (?) and Lourena Busell. Could Mary have been related to James P. Johnson and Almira Sweet who were married in Pulaski County 7/3/1847? Almira was the d/o Owen Sweet who was in Claiborne County in 1830. He then moved on to Laurel County, KY in 1840, then Pulaski County, KY in 1850. Owen is reported to have been the s/o William and Elizabeth (Mershon) and William the s/o Benjamin Sweet and Martha BARTON.

David B. who was living with Malissa Sweet in 1850 was listed as Barton in 1860, so there must be a connection to the above family. I also wonder if my William's middle name was Barton.

Do you know if the David who shows on the 1830/1840 Claiborne County census was the one who married Manila

Holton? Were Malissa and Matilda ever married? If my great grandfather was born out of wedlock, my grandmother would not have told me.

In all probability Matilda was the mother of my William as he named a daughter Mattie and we assume her name was Matilda.

I would be more than happy to hear your theories on all this. If I can be of help to you, let me know. I have reams of Sweet material.

Shirley

Shirley

I would be more than happy to help you research on all this. If I can be of help to you, let me know. I have means of Sweet maternal names was Matilda. In all probability Matilda was the mother of my William as he named a daughter Matilda and we assume her grandmother would not have told me.

Do you know if the David who shows on the 1900/1940 Claiborne County census was the one who married Matilda?

David B. who was living with Matilda Sweet in 1850 was listed as Burton in 1850 so there must be a connection to the above family. I also wonder if my William's middle name was Burton.

Benjamin Sweet and Martha BARTON KY in 1850 Owen is reported to have been the son William and Elizabeth (Mentioned) and William the son who was in Claiborne County in 1850. He then moved on to Letcher County, KY in 1840, then Putnam County, P. Johnson and Anne Sweet who were married in Putnam County 1841? Anne was the daughter of Owen Sweet Kentucky. Mary was the adopted daughter of Matilda (?) and Louisa Bassell. Could Mary have been related to James in 1870 William is living with James Cooper and Mary (Johnson) who were married 1841/1852 in Putnam County.

taken in July - about a month between censuses. counted in both census records. The Claiborne census was taken in June and the Putnam County census was County, TN census with Matilda Sweet. He would have had time to travel from Tennessee to Illinois and be Putnam County, Illinois census with James and Mary (Johnson) Cooper. He also appears in the 1870 Claiborne My William was born 9 Mar 1848 and died 28 Feb 1872 in Champagne County, Illinois. He appears in the 1870

Shirley,

This is Ernie Grubb, Ann's husband. It is my Grubb family that is connected with the Sweets in Claiborne County. It is very probable that the Sweets living next door to John Grubb, Jr. and Crissie were relatives of Crissie although we can't prove it. The 1850 census shows a family with a David who is probably Crissie's brother....and named after his father???? I have Crissie's father as a David. We believe the Matilda (head of the house) Sweet is probably her maiden name. William B. was also shown on the 1850 census as a 3 year old, I think.

Wish I could be absolute...

Creek next to Widow Aiken in 1802 from Thomas Harmon. George, along with brothers Moses and Isaac, were witnesses to a land deed in 1802 for Thomas Harmon. He sold more land on Lick Creek in 1806 to James Brittan. George sold lots in Greenville in 1805 and 1808 to Valentine Sevier that he had bought for three dollars as highest bidder in a law suit case. He sold a half acre in Greenville to James Milliken in 1808.

George purchased from William Gass on December 16, 1807, a Negro boy named Sam for $400; again, on September 5, 1808, he purchased from Gass a nineteen year old Negro woman named Melinda. Hamilton Neil was a witness to this second transaction. In the 1809 tax list George was listed as having 280 acres, one white poll, and two black polls.

George was a gunsmith, and operated a business in the town of Greenville, Greene County, Tennessee.

An interesting story concerning Nancy (Neill) Harmon was told by her granddaughter Susan Kelsay. Susan said, "Grandmother Harmon one day in Greene County, Tennessee, saw a large group of Indians approaching her home. They stopped some distance from her house and an Indian squaw got down off her horse and went down into a sinkhole. All the Indians moved on, leaving the woman alone. Thinking that the squaw might be sick, grandmother went out to see if the squaw needed help, but found she was just waiting for her papoose to be born. Grandmother went back to her house to get some food for the squaw. This was a good venison stew. The Indian woman ate it, then got busy with her work at hand. After the baby was born, the mother picked it up, climbed out of the sinkhole and went to the river and waded in and gave the baby its first bath. Next day the Indians returned. When they learned that grandmother had fed the woman they made a speech and promised that she and her family would never be harmed by them. They took the woman and baby and rode off."

George died about 1810 in Greene County, as there was an inventory of his estate in January 1811. Nancy, along with Benjamin Neal who was administrator of George's estate, had a judgment placed against them by a man who stated he was owed a small amount of money that had not been paid to him. The court found in his favor on September 14, 1812 and an execution for collecting the debt (fifteen dollars and seventy-five cents principal and fifty cents costs) was placed into the hands of James McPherson, a constable of Greene County for collections. The record then states: "The said constable hath now made return of said Execution that he could find no personal property of the said Defendant, and that he had levied said execution on one hundred and fifty acres of land, the place where said Harmon formerly lived. Whereupon on motion of the Plaintiff it is considered and ordered by the court that the aforesaid one hundred and fifty acres of land, levied on as aforesaid, be condemned to the satisfactory of the recovery aforesaid and that the Sheriff of this County, expose to public sale as the law directs, the whole or so much of said land as will satisfy said recovery and all lawful costs."

Stephen Alexander recovered another judgment against George Harmon's estate on November 7, 1812 for six dollars and seventy-five cents. Again, a constable was dispatched and saw no personal property that could be sold for the money owed except those same one hundred and fifty acres. Again, the judge stated the land must be sold at public sale to cover this debt.

The Orphans Court in April of 1813 assigned Nancy to be guardian of her six orphaned children.

On October 21, 1815, George's estate was sold at a Sheriff's sale to satisfy those debts. At the auction, the highest bidder was Isaac Harmon, who purchased the 170 acres for twelve dollars.

In 1816, Nancy sold 140 acres to Peter Harmon, possibly the son of John Harmon, and over the next few years as her children became of age they sold their interests in their father's estate to the same Peter Harmon. After 1816 we find no further record of Nancy Neil Harmon. It is quite possible that she accompanied several of her children to Montgomery County, Illinois, and is the unnamed woman aged between sixty and seventy years living there at the time of the 1840 census in the household of her daughter Nancy Myers.

10) Stephen Harmon, born 1777 in Bedford County, Virginia. In January of 1799, Stephen, along with brothers Isaac and Henry, was assigned to work the road maintenance on the Gass Creek to Greenville Road. He married in Greene County, Tennessee on July 23, 1799 to Sarah Luster, born about 1780 in Virginia. Stephen sold land on March 13, 1810 that was situated on Clay Bank Creek on Lick Creek; he purchased one hundred acres on Lick Creek next to his brother George's land in 1810 from another brother, Thomas Harmon, which was witnessed by Peter and John Harmon. He sold more land in 1818 to Isaac Harmon. Stephen and Sarah left Greene County with their children in the early 1830's and settled in nearby Monroe County, Tennessee, until 1849 at which time they moved further west to Arkansas with four of their children. They sailed by boat down the Tennessee River, which flowed from their home county into the Ohio River at Paducah, Kentucky, and on to Arkansas by the Mississippi River. They were residing in Washington Township, Independence County,

NOTES:

The biography on Barbara Jane Parman, sent via e-mail to compiler in May, 2000 by Ray Sturgill gives the following information about William Roscoe Sweet:

...She married William Roscoe Sweet on January 30, 1867 in Laurel County. He was born in January 1846 in Laurel County and was the son of Alexander Sweet and Lucinda Brock. On June 28, 1889 he bought a farm on John's Creek in laurel County which later became known as Sweet Hill. A family cemetery is now located at the site. William Roscoe Sweet committed suicide. It is said he had buried some money at the home on Sweet Hill. He later moved to London, KY, but upon returning to visit he discovered the tree he had marked showing the location of the money had been removed. Apparently depressed over the loss of the money he entered the house and shot himself. He was buried on Sweet Hill in the center of the cemetery...

Western Christian Advocate
Cincinnati, Ohio
Friday, December 4, 1846

August 10 -- In great peace, at the residence of his son, Wm. T. Sweet, in Logan County, O., brother Joshua Sweet, in the seventy-ninth year of his age, and fifty-sixth year of his Christian pilgrimage, after an illness of three weeks.

He was born in Pennsylvania, and in 1790 embraced religion and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, under the Rev. John Tucker, who was killed by the Indians on the Ohio river. Brother Sweet was a member of the first class formed in the state of Ohio. He has been more than half a century a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was firmly and affectionately attached to the Church of his choice, and was never heard to utter a single complaint against its ministry, doctrines, discipline, or usages. He was constant at the sanctuary and at the throne of grace, and the Bible was his daily companion for several of the last years of his life. Feeling that his work was done, he quietly waited for his change, having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. His death was peaceful. His funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. S. P. Shaw, from 2 Timothy iv, 7, on the 16th of November.

Francis Lane Goddard and family lived at Little Creek Hundred in Sussex Co, DE. The will of Francis Lane Goddard was written 25 May 1794 and presented for probate on 21 Nov 1794. Mentioned in the will are his wife Mary; sons, Griffith Goddard, John Goddard, and William Goddard; daughters, Eunice Goddard, Sarah Goddard, and Goodin Goddard. Who was the wife of Francis Lane Goddard? I have been unable to find a marriage for the couple. The marriage date would have been c1750-55. Griffith Goddard died 1811 in Sussex county. By 1st wife he had a son named William Goddard and by 2nd wife he had daughters, Nancy Goddard, born 6 Apr 1806 and Maria Goddard, born Dec 1809. What became of them? John Goddard married Sarah Weatherly Waller and moved to Gallatin Co, KY. William Goddard (whom I believe to be my 4th great-grandfather), married Elizabeth Kellam? and moved to Greene Co, PA. Eunice Goddard married William Collins. Sarah Goddard, no info. Goodin Goddard married John Horsey. Any descendants out there? Would really like to hear from you. Have found no living relatives of son Griffith Goddard, or daughters, Eunice, Sarah and Goodin Goddard.

Shirley,

This is Ernie Grubb, Ann's husband. It is my Grubb family that is connected with the Sweets in Claiborne County. It is very probable that the Sweets living next door to John Grubb, Jr. and Crissie were relatives of Crissie although we can't prove it. The 1850 census shows a family with a David who is probably Crissie's brother....and named after his father???? I have Crissie's father as a David. We believe the Matilda (head of the house) Sweet is probably her maiden name. William B. was also shown on the 1850 census as a 3 year old, I think.

Wish I could be absolute...

Ernie

That Henry Sweet had a son Charles Marchael Sweet b. 1852; d. 1896; m. 1883 Annie Lewis b. 1856; d. 1914. Further that Thomas Sweet served as a private in Capt. Is there any proof that Benjamin (b. ca. 1740 VA) is the son of Timothy Sweet? Other list members believe Benjamin to be a descendent of Robert Sweet who was in Pennsylvania prior to the Revolution. It would be interesting to know what these two different conclusions are based upon.

Shirley,

About 1993 I did some research on the sweets in the Columbus Indiana library. I used microfiche and accidentally found the marriage license. My mother Ina D. Schulz (died in 1992 and John Sweet (died 1991) bought on October 4, 1969. There was a woman who worked at the library who was also a Sweet. However, she said my line was of no relation. She was awesome. I wonder if she still works there. She could possibly give you tons of info on the sweet line too.

From what I remember the Sweet clan I am from had roots in Kentucky. John Sweet was married to a woman and had a daughter who both died from cancer. Then he married again and that wife died of cancer too. This left him with several children. Whom my mother was hired to care for. I guess she and John fell in love or something.... John never married my mother and two weeks after I was born he married another woman. I don't remember her name. Also his mother died in a fire in a shed. So his father raised some of the children by her and other children were farmed out to relatives.

The records gave an address which I went to visit at the time. His grieving widow was not at all happy that I showed up on her door step. She showed me a picture of my bio Father who looks like my son but when she found out who I was she took the picture and shut the door. She did say she stole John Sweet away from my mother. (I figure since they were married 30 years and raised 4 kids they were a perfect match.) However, I do wish I could have known my siblings and cousins. I am sure they are good people.

John had several siblings including a man named Bob Downbert who is an attorney who handled my being adopted to a step father in 1970. None of my bio-uncles or anyone else would speak to me at all, including Bob Downbert. I have no desire to hurt the family so I stopped looking and flew back to Utah where I have live since 1979. When I had the chance for DNA testing I hoped it would help me know for sure and fill in that side of my tree.

I am positive, I met John Sweet at least three times in my life. Although I was not told who he was my father. He was a stranger named sweet and his behavior and favoritism toward me and not my siblings

John Franklin Sweet Jr (Born December 3, 1967 or December 18th in Neubruke, Germany) Married Diana Joe Cox June 12, 1989.

It seems my memory failed me. John divorced on of his wives. I don't know the name. The divorce decree was served to John Sweet on June 14th 1960. I can't see the wife's first name on the divorce decree. However, she had the paper drawn up by Robert L. Dalebert, the same attorney who arranged my adoption when I was 6 years old.

Also According to records Mom did not work for John Sweet. She was working for a sporting goods store at the time. I think my aunt told me she was taking care of the kids but my aunt has been know to be wrong. Especially since she was pretty up there in years when she was trying to remember back to 1965.

Well I hope all this will help us find a connection. If not oh well. At least I found a kindred spirit who may be my cousin.

Sincerely,

Penny Lazalde
